The failure of the New York city bond sale did not appear to exert any special influence owing to an understanding of temporary superior attractiveness of the higher rates for money to capitalists as investment. The continued weakness of silver also excited comment, and was attributed to disturbance in Indian exchanges and liquidation here and in London. Sales of $127,000 were made

LINCOLN COULD GET ANGRY. As, for Example, When His Telegrams Were Delivered to Stanton.

"I have read several of the Lincoln anniversary speeches which have appeared in the papers in the past few days," said Mr. Charles Frederick last evening, "and have been struck with the statement contained in some of them to the effect that Mr. Lincoln seldom got mad, and that when he did get mad, he did not allow himself to get very mad. I don't remember now why they did not come over the military telegraph lines. Well, one night I started over to the White

Hungary is the basin of the Danube and its tributaries, bounded in a semi-circle by the Carpathian mountains. No other country of equal extent possesses the same physical unity. With very few exceptions all rivers of Hungary flow, directly or indirectly, into the Danube, and prehistoric times Hungary was, indeed, immense lake, which, by crumbling masses from the Carpathians, has in the course of untold centuries been leveled up to a vast plain. This physical self-contentedness of the country designated it, as it were, for a proud and self-contented nation. Legion was the number of tribes and peoples pouring into Hungary through the passes of the north or the plains of the south from the time of Alexander of Macedon to that of Alfred of England. Gepides and Goths, Hercules and Alans, Huns and Moravians, Servians and Ruthenians, and very many more land-seeking tribes essayed to court the love of incivta Hun-

They also founded a true nationality and a genuine state. The peoples in habiting Hungaria before the arrival of the Magyars were not so much conquered zens proper. As physically, so nationally, Hungary has always been a unit, not a union. Not every aggregate of people speaking the same language is a nation. True, from what we are pleased to call the ethnographic point of view, Hungary Lard-Kettle rendered, in tierces, 5%c; pure offers indeed a most picturesque spectacle of endless varieties of speech, costume, customs and folk lore. There are towns in Hungary, and small towns, too, where from seven to ten idioms are constantly being used. On the Galican frontier there is in a lovely valley the old town of Eperjes. The number of its inhabitants does not exceed twelve thousand. To this day the good people of Eperjes are in the habit of talking or being talked cling to its own language for centuries.

EARLY BEARISH ITEMS STARTED THE MARKET AT FIRM PRICES.

Other Grain Was at Better Figures in Sympathy, but Provisions Collapsed Somewhat.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.-The apparent return of confidence reflected in New York stocks and reported frosts in Manitoba gave wheat a decidedly strong tone all day. September dianapolis. Suite 229, first office floor, The closed at an advance of about %c. Corn and oats were both strong, advancing 4c and %c, respectively. Provisions, on the $262 | contrary, declined somewhat.

Considering the bearishness of two at wheat started remarkably firm. The New York stock market was firm. Call money in Wall street was quoted at 46c and sterling exchange was far below the point where gold could be profitably exported in its place. In fact, there appeared to be a not very remote probability of gold coming this way. The frost in Manitoba which was reported yesterday was reproduced this forenoon and helped the improvement in the financial outlook to scare the few shorts in the market. On the other hand, favorable official reports regarding Russian crop prospects were posted, which had a tendency to weaken the price, and the New Orleans, Aug. 18.—Cotton firm; middling, 7%c; low middling, 7 9-16c; good ordinary, Northwest movement was nearly up to the 75-16c. This and the firm tone of closing cables imparted fresh strength to the market, though the general duliness of the closing hour was against any material advance. September opened %c higher, at 54%c, advanced steadily to 55%c, declined to 54%c and closed steady at Corn was strong and higher, partly in sympathy with the advance in wheat and a very fair quantity. September opened a shade lower at 22%c and advanced steadily to 22%@23c, closing steady at 22%c. Oats were firm, with good business transacted. Offerings were not large and a good demand existed. New York commission houses bought considerable early and they were the promoters of advance. An easier feeling prevailed during the last hour and prices fell off somewhat, although the closing feeling was steady. September opened 1/2 lower, at 16%c, sold up to 171/2c and eased off to 171/2c, where Provisions ruled lower all day in spite of the strong grain markets and the higher prices prevailing at the yards. Considerable liquidation was indulged in, which created an easy feeling, and a decline from the opening prices resulted. The closing was steady at declines of 7½@10c.
